

U. S. Steel Tubular Products

Quality Policy

To provide cost-effective quality products and services to our customers. To achieve this, we must. . .

Place safety as a first priority in performing tasks.

Improve continually our processes and products through compliance to the Quality Management System.

Promote effectiveness and efficiency through planned reviews of metrics and quality objectives.

Empower the work force to be responsive and accountable by providing training, tools, skills, and motivation.